Clean and Healthy India Campaign

Department-Applied/Painting Total Students: 8 Date: 09/08/2019

Objective: To raise awareness of cleanliness and environmental conservation among students and to promote tree planting.

Content: As part of the regular activities of the National Service Scheme, on August 9, 2019, on the occasion of Kranti Din (Revolution Day), a one-day labor awareness program was organized under the Clean and Healthy India Campaign at the Savitribai Phule Pune University campus. As part of this program, activities such as cleaning the premises and tree planting were organized. Eight students from the college participated in this initiative, which was supervised by NSS program officer Professor Krishna Sawant.

Outcome: Through this program, students were encouraged to keep their surroundings clean and beautiful, and it was emphasized that tree planting would help maintain clean air and pollution-free surroundings.

River Cleanness. 2019-2020

-----Department -----
Applied art/Painting Total Students-25 Date-02/10/2019

Objective: To raise awareness among students about the cleanliness of rivers, dated October 2, 2019.

Content: Under the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, the National Service Scheme department of Savitribai Phule Pune University organized a cleanliness drive as part of the NSS Golden Jubilee and in commemoration of Mahatma Gandhi's 150th birth anniversary on October 2, 2019. From seven to ten in the morning, volunteers from Bharati Vidyapeeth College of Fine Arts, under the National Service Scheme and the Student Development Association, participated in a one-day voluntary cleanup at various locations along the Mula-Mutha and Pavana rivers near Deccan Tula in Pune and Pimpri-Chinchwad cities. Twenty-five students, along with teachers and staff, actively contributed to this initiative.

Outcome: This program educated students about the importance of maintaining cleanliness in rivers, which are essential for life, and also emphasized the necessity of a clean environment around these rivers.

Objective: To assist waste pickers in the slums and raise awareness among students about the sentiment of compassion and assistance

Content: As part of the National Service Scheme regular program, under the aegis of Savitribai Phule Pune University and Bharati Vidyapeeth, College of Fine Arts, a cleanliness drive was organized in the slums of Nirmal Vari. Students participated in providing assistance to waste pickers by serving them breakfast, providing water, and raising awareness about the harmful effects of plastic and thermocol on the environment. The initiative aimed to create awareness and educate society about the hazardous impact of littering and to promote cleanliness and environmental consciousness. 67 students participated in the event, which commenced at 8:00 AM at Sitaram Abaji Bibve Primary School, Shala No. 64, Bibvewadi, Pune. In the Nirmal Vari program, students were accompanied by Mrs. Manswini Kankal and Mr. R. S. Yawalkar. All the activities were conducted under the guidance of Program Coordinators, Principal Anupama Patil, and Vice-Principal Prof. Rupesh Pawar

Outcome: Through this program, students not only learned about the importance of cleanliness but also sensitized every individual in society about the significance of cleanliness to health. The realization of how cleanliness is crucial to health was evident in all participants, as well as the students.
