Ganesh festival

2022-23

Department –Applied art/Painting Total Students-20 Date-31/08/2022

Objective: The primary objective of involving students in stage decoration is to foster creativity, teamwork, and a sense of cultural pride. It also provides students with an opportunity to actively participate in religious and cultural festivities.

Content: Ganesh festival has special significant in the culture of Maharashtra. Ganesh Chaturthi is celebrated annually to mark the birth of Lord Ganesha. It is traditionally celebrated for 11 days. However, college celebrates it for 5 days. The celebration includes morning –evening aarti at the Ganpati Stahpna place in campus and cultural activities at night. Everyone chant "Ganpati Bappa Morya, Mangal Murti Morya" and try to make whole environment with positive energy. We arranged the "Parasd" in campus. This is the most festive event of the campus enthusiastically celebrated by students and resident staff. The event comes at the beginning of new session and gives an opportunity to newly joined students to interact, acclimatize and manifest their potential. students, along with teachers and event organizers, start planning the stage decoration. They brainstorm ideas, considering themes that reflect cultural values, environmental consciousness, or current social issues.

Outcome: The function was completely handled by enthusiastic students who actively participated and arranged for the complete event.

Guru Pournima

2022 – 2023

Department: Applied Art Class: Final Year Total Students: 56 Date: 13/07/2022

Objective: The objective of this program was to celebrate Guru Pournima with all our beloved teachers.

Contents of this session: Guru Pournima was celebrated by students of BFA(AA) under the guidance of Final Year students. Main content for this program was to tell all our professors the importance of them in our day-to-day life, things they teach us, and thanking them for all the teachings they give us and felicitate them by showing our respect towards them.

Outcomes: The outcome of this event was very positive, as students spoke about the importance of their Guru to them, thanked them and wrote small poetry as well for them. Few students shared their point of view as well to show their respect towards their Guru. Overall, it was a successful event as all staff members from the college were invited to attend this event. All our teachers were felicitated with rose flower and as well snacks were arranged for all staff members as well as students.
