Department: Applied Art & Painting	Class: 4 th year	Total Students: _43
Date : 29/09/2025	Time : 12:00 pm to 3:00 pm	Total sessions : 1

Recourse Person: Miss Rameshwari Shinde, IT Engineer, AI expert.

Objective: Introduce students to the growing significance of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and its use in design.

Program Content:

The program introduced students to the growing significance of Artificial Intelligence (AI). It emphasized on AI and creativity in the field of Applied Arts. The students were made aware of growth of knowledge and information in the age of the internet. Rise of search engines to rise of AI was explained.

The trainer highlighted how AI transforms various fields, including design, advertising, and applied arts, by bringing efficiency and innovation. Students were informed about different types of AI and their practical applications, such as generative tools, automation, and data-driven design solutions. This exposure gave participants a clear understanding of how AI can be integrated into their future careers, helping them stay updated with industry trends and technologies.

Overall, the training was highly informative and interactive, enabling students to strengthen their professional skills while also gaining awareness of new technological developments.

Industry Perspective:

This session on AI in design will help students succeed in industry by providing them with relevant skills using current AI tools, teaching them efficient, modern workflows that employers value.

Outcomes:

The session helped students gain practical insights and motivated them to use AI tools in design. Students understood that artificial intelligence is now a powerful tool that helps designers work faster and smarter. It is a new way of working where designers use AI as a helpful assistant to create new ideas and save time, while still keeping people and ethics at the center of the design process.
